(JEFF)

Hey it's Jeff. Jeff. Do you ever have those days where your name sounds weird? Jeff. Jeff. That's sounds weird doesn't it? Anways, I got on the subway to go get my comic books, and there was a school group gathered on the sidewalk, and they each had a buddy you know...hand in hand...and there was this one pair of boys and I swear and it like a little me and a little you, which cracked me up...and then, right behind them, were two girls and it totally was a little Susan and a little Heidi. It was amazing. Just if you took us, and shrank us and sent us on a little school trip. Okay, I'm gonna grab some eats and I'll be at your place in a bit. Bye.
