THEATRE THREE, INC.

Arena theatre returned to Dallas when THEATRE THREE'S first production, THE RELUCTANT DEBUTANTE, opened last March. This civic, non-profit theatre, at the same time, heralded an upsurge of interest in the theatrical arts in Dallas. With a company composed of Dallas residents, THEATRE THREE proudly leads the way in bringing back to Dallas the best in regional civic theatre.

Your support is THEATRE THREE'S reason for being. Our continuing goal is and will be to entertain you with the best available in stage fare.

THEATRE THREE'S ART GALLERY

The Art showing in our foyer is being presented through the courtesy of the advanced students of Mrs. Betty Winn. Mrs. Winn is a well-known Dallas artist and instructor of art. We are indebted to her and her students for this showing.

We hope you will view and enjoy these outstanding works of art. The artists showing tonite are . . . Virginia Nissen, Jeanne Wilson, Betty See, Betty Zeck, Sylvia Ferguson, Betty Leak, Peggy Dobson, Mary Jean Balle and Betty Winn.

FACTS ABOUT THE PLAY

LILIOM was first presented on the New York stage in 1921. It opened to immediate critical acclaim and has since held its position as one of the classics of the modern stage. Rodgers and Hammerstein made history by adapting the play into a great musical, CAROUSEL. The story of the carnival barker and his faithful girl is, in all respects, great theatre.

THEATRE THREE'S NEXT PRODUCTION

On July 29, THEATRE THREE will unveil its fifth production . . . a return to the farce comedy that has come to be identified with this arena theatre. Garson Kanin's wonderful satire on "Potomac Fever" . . . BORN YESTERDAY. Reservations may be made by calling LA 1-1353.
