ABOUT THE PLAYERS

T. Y. Hill (Doc) holds a Master's in theatre from the University of Oklahoma. Active with Theatre Three since its initial season in 1961, Mr. Hill won the Dallas Entertainment award as Best Actor for his work in the Theatre Three production of "Waiting for Godot." His long association with Theatre Three includes directing ("A Physician in Spite of Himself") in addition to playing leading roles in "Julius Caesar," "The Great Sebastians," "The Devil's Disciple" and "The Little Foxes." Mr. Hill is also a free lance writer for films and television.

MARY LEE YORK (Lola) was trained at North Texas State University where, as an undergraduate, she first played the role she is performing in this production for Theatre Three. Miss York joined Theatre Three's company this season appearing as Mrs. Antrobus in "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder. Said one critic about her exquisite work in that show "Mary Lee York, an actress of sensitivity and impeccable theatrical instinct, was a delight . . . her performance was notable for sustained and intelligent consistency."

SANDRA LANZ (Marie) makes her Theatre Three debut in this production. A veteran performer, she has recently been seen in a leading role in "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" for the Dallas Repertory Company. Her credits include film and television work.

JOHN CACCIATORE (Turk) played the leading role in Henry Livings' play "Eh?" and has just concluded an assignment as the young king in Theatre Three's children's show, "Rumpelstiltskin." Other assignments for Theatre Three include "The Devils Disciple" and "Pantagleize." A skilled practitioner in the art of film, Mr. Cacciatore owns his own film production company.

JOAN FOY (Mrs. Coffman) played Mrs. Zero in "The Adding Machine" and Domina in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" last season at Theatre Three. A busy actress, she also appeared in the Dallas Civic Opera production of "The Merry Widow" as well as playing in "Oliver!" for Dallas Rep.

LEE BUEHRER (Ed) was active with the Midland Community Theatre as a resident of that city. Moving to Dallas on assignment with Core Lab, Mr. Buehrer and his wife Florence, a costumer, have joined the Theatre Three company. "Come Back, Little Sheba" is his Theatre Three debut.

JOE OLIVER (Elmo) appeared this season as the captain in "Anything Goes". He has acted in numerous shows for Theatre Three including "Solid Gold Cadillac", "Write Me a Murder", "Pantagleize". He was one of the most able and faithful workers in the building of this new theatre and his expertise was lent to the building of the "Come Back, Little Sheba" set.

GEORGE BOURLAND (Mailman) DAVID HANEY (Bruce) and CHARLES PETERS (Milkman) are making Theatre Three debuts also in "Come Back, Little Sheba".

IF WE WERE TRUCKERS, WE'D CALL IT "A LONG HAUL"

Theatre Three has begun its subsidy drive. Late March saw the beginning of a giant effort to raise $30,000.00 to insure our survival. (Would you believe the cost of plywood has gone up 200% over two years' time?) Our Patron Campaign (any tax-deductible gift from $33.00 to $99.00) is scheduled to improve the theatre plant for both audience and actors. Our Producers Committee, that is now a five year young subsidy effort from culturally interested Dallasites, is being headed by Mr. John Wisenbaker, the dynamic President of our Board. The Producers Committee is asked for tax-deductible gifts of $100.00 to $250.00. The drive is now scheduled through April, but will continue until the goal is reached. It's a matter of survival. As you wish, your name will be listed in our next program as a Patron or a member of the Producers Committee. (Already, we've been the happy recipient of those who have less to give but believe in the work we do.) Won't you consider Theatre Three as a worthy cause? Any indication of interest on your part will instantly gain you the information you may want and the manner by which you can take action!
